“ It's hard to believe tomorrow will be one month since you got your wings. Hope it's all butterflies and rainbows like we believe. I'll love you always, ya mean old man. :)

“ I am so happy I got to spend some of my Uncle Bobby's last days with him. At one point he told me I could drive his motor home to the desert. Wait til I get to meet him in heaven, he'll most likely give me hell for that. I am assured he is with Aunt Nehi and Albert having a grand ol time. I am sorry for my dear cousin Donna and her children's loss. Til we meet again Uncle Bobby.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. There are no words that I can express to you that can ease the sorrow of losing someone so beloved. May reflecting on all the good times you've shared together help ease the pain you now feel. Please know that God cares for you and he will give you strength that you need to endure this difficult time. (1 Peter 5:6,7)
