“ Josie Osborn. When I think of Josie a big smile comes to my face. I had the pleasure of knowing her for over 60 years since her daughter and I were best friends and I went to high school with her son. I have many fond memories of her and Dick but the first thing to flash in my mind were her shoes. Those high, high, high heels on such a tiny, tiny person! I always worried she was going to fall right on her face, but of course she never did.

My other fond memory was her little giggle of a laugh. I use to get a kick out of shocking her by saying or doing something to bring about that giggle. I can hear her voice, "Oh Carol, did you really do that?" or "Oh my!!!".

But now she is in the presence of her Lord and Savior and I rejoice that she is home at last. So here's to you Josie. I found this in my Aunt Sarah's bible when she went home and I'll share it here.

When I am gone, remember I'm with Jesus,
Then do not grieve because I've passed away.
Life holds so many griefs and disappointments,
And will you weep because I did not stay?
Weep not because I walk no longer with you,
Remember I am walking streets of gold.
Weep for yourselves that you tarry,
Before your blessed Lord you may behold.

My prayer is that it may be soon that we are all caught up and behold Him! I can only imagine.

With much love,
Carol Johnston....and Jim too!
