“ It's so hard to say goodbye to a man of such exemplary character and faith as "Uncle LP". My childhood memories are sprinkled with his advice, his laugh, his wisdom. In more recent years, it was a privilege to have become friends and continue to learn from the example he set. His loss leaves a gaping hole in the universe that no one can fill. May he rest eternally in the loving arms of God.

“ Mike and I will greatly miss Leo. He and Lucie were my second parents ever since their daughter Pam and I first met in college. Other than my own parents I cannot think of a more caring, sincerely loving, kind, and honorable man. Leo has left a huge imprint on many of us on earth and his untimely passing has left a huge emptiness. I know time will heal, but we all miss him so very very much. God bless Lucie and all of the family. Our love and prayers go out to you all. Sue and Mike Pritchard
