“ Dear Aunt Anna: I don't know what to say. You were so kind and generous and I will miss you terribly. My heart aches with your loss. Your picture on the bench implores us to sit and have one final conversation with you. At night I will look up to the heavens find the brightest star and see the light from that star as your love shining down on us all.

“ Dear Aunt Anna: I have so many fond memories of you from a young age up until now. You impacted me in such a positive way. I was always proud that you and Uncle John were my Godparents. You were always so kind and thoughtful. I love you and I will miss you, and all of our many conversations.
