“ Our paths crossed 28 years ago, and I truly believe it was no coincidence. It was God’s plan. From the moment we became family. Those were the happiest years of Bobby’s life, and when Moriah came along, that joy reached a whole new level. He was completely hooked, becoming. A father brought out the very best in him. Bobby was a kind of father. Everyone hopes for loving attentive, caring, and always ready with his signature sense of humor, his presence lit up, every room, and is so touched every life he encountered, though he is no longer with us in the physical sense. Bobby will always remain part of my life. He left me in charge of his Motown, his creation full of his humor, his soul, and a big, beautiful heart. It’s an honor. I whole deeply. I love you, Bobby until we meet again, Tish.
