“ Chet was a huge part of my life from the time he was 21. We were married for over 13 years, and even after our divorce, we still kept in touch and saw each other at least once a week as we were still in love with one another. Over the years we shared facts that he was extremely sad for what he had put me through with the divorce, but that he loved being a father to his son Riley. It was a sad day when I heard he passed away, and there isn't a day that goes by that I wish I had one more day to be with him at my home. I miss him so very much and am so glad that we had each other in our lives for the years we did. I'll always love him forever. MM
