

Edwin Daung

December 25, 1960 - March 17, 2024

A much-loved husband, father, grandfather and a wonderful friend to many. Edwin “Bonjing” Ragot Daung, 63, of Buena Park, California, passed away peacefully last March 17, 2024 at West Anaheim Medical Center in California. He had bravely confronted and fought liver cancer. When he was diagnosed, he chose to keep this news within the family.

He was born on December 25, 1960 in Zamboanga City, Philippines and was raised in Medina Misamis Oriental. He moved to Carmen Bohol in 1987 and resided there for 30 yrs. Bonjing was a Court Process Server at the Municipal Trial Court of Carmen Bohol from 1987 to 1990 and was the Sheriff at the Regional Trial Court Branch 51 from 1990 until his retirement in 2018. He moved to California, USA in November 2018 with his spouse.

Bonjing’s good humor and generous spirit touched everyone he met. He is survived by his wife of 38 years, Alicia Lomod Daung ; Son Erwin June Daung; daughters Erwina Jane Daung-Melendez and Haydee Joy Daung ; grand daughters Nicole Jillian and Deangela; grandsons Prince Justin and Arwind; daughter-in-law Jennifer Daung ; son-in-law Dario KD Melendez and Jamal Salam Alsaud; his sister Helen Daung-Julhani. Additionally, “Uncle Bonjing” is survived by numerous nieces and nephews and their families, as well as several cousins and relatives. Bonjing will be dearly missed by numerous former co-workers and close friends.

Bonjing is preceded in death by both his parents, Akil and Amparo; his brothers, Edgardo, Abraham, Ibrahim, Eduardo, Eddie, Eric and Erwin; his sisters, Emma, Norma, Teresita, Edna and many other loved relatives.

His family is organizing a memorial service on Sunday, March 31, 2024 @ 2:30 PM at the Memory Garden Memorial Park and Mortuary and asks that anyone with fond memories, stories or keepsakes to feel free to attend and share.

His ashes will be flown back to the Philippines. A Celebration of Life Reception will follow. The family is currently making plans for the funeral and reception. Further details will be shared soon.
