

Freddie Cooper

February 23, 1950 - May 3, 2016

Life Legacy

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations be made to La Habra Church of Christ. A link has been provided for contact information in the bottom left hand corner. The family has also welcomed anyone who would like to bring a letter or photo that they would like to place in the casket with Freddie, to bring it for the visitation or service. The letters and photos will remain with Freddie, so it is suggested that families make copies for themselves to keep if not already done.

“Freddie Cooper was a very dear colleague who I was lucky to have since the last 5 years. He was very friendly and caring. Humble and peaceful. One felt very comfortable in his company as he was such an easy going and loving person. He always had a smile on his face and was a perfect example of a true gentleman. I was so glad when Freddie found a perfect match in Barbara (our dear BB). They were a perfect couple. Was heartbroken to know he is no more. May he rest in peace in his heavenly abode - Amen”

“ Really going to miss you, Freddie. One of the kindest and most positive guys I've known even if things were tough. You were witty and seemed like every time I was around you, even if brief we'd have a laugh. You've touched a lot of lives both personally and professionally and thank you for taking time to talk to me about the bible and make me better personally and professionally. Rest in Peace my friend.
