“ I met Gerry at Hughes and later again at Boeing. He was a great guy and so down to earth. In a world of all types of personalities he was definitely a calming influence. I was around when his health problems first surfaced and I found it hard to believe that such a healthy looking guy could come down with cancer. Part of me still doesn't understand it. But thanks to the medicine and to his strong will, he came back. We used to sometimes talk about his situation. I thought to myself how mentally and physically tough it must be to live with that condition. A few months ago I noticed that he didn't look good at all. shortly after that I saw he was out on medical leave. I will miss him. He was just an altogether great guy.

“ I remember the day Bud Karen and John came to visit us in Winnemucca. Our visit was great and we are so glad Bud and Teri Jean were able to share their experiences as well. We surely understand your loss. Our prayers are with you at this difficult time. God bless all of you. Bud was a terrific.guy!Uncle Turk and Elaine

“ I met Gerry in the mid-80s while working at Northrop on the B-2 program. We both had a lot in common being junior engineers and having ties back to Colorado. Our friendship grew over the years as we worked together while following various programs in aerospace throughout southern California. As Gerry moved up the management ladder he never let ego get the best of him, he was always quick with a smile and slow to anger, he had that shy chuckle when he laughed. We spent many a lunch hour having food with other coworkers in El Segundo, or Huntington Beach, having beers under the noon day sun. He would listen while I ranted about my teenagers, and later I would listen while he talked about his cancer and the side effects from the drugs. Under the circumstances he displayed dignity and great courage. We hadn't seen each other for a couple of years when I heard that Gerry's cancer had come back. I was planning on calling him for lunch when I found out he had passed..... I'm very sorry I didn't have that last beer with Gerry, he will be greatly missed, he was a good friend. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends.Brion

“ During this time of loss of a wonderful husband, father and brother to all of you I express my deepest sympathy. I know during Bud's life he achieved many awesome goals with his family and in his profession. He was a example to all of what one can achieve and in the last years of his life put up a fight against cancer that was unbelievable. I will always remember Bud with pride and great admiration.
