“ Thinking of Uncle Jack and just remembering all of the little things that made such great memories. Uncle Jack was always telling us a joke or a fun fact. He could really make us laugh. Anytime we would get in trouble with our parents it was like he didn't want a single bad memory at his home so he'd slip us $5 lol the first thing i would do when i got to their house was lay down on their carpet, it was ridiculously soft! Uncle Jack gave me some great advice once. He said "if you're going to ask someone 'how did you do it' when looking at their success, make sure that their success is where you want to be." Uncle Jack, thank you for showing me the true meanings of honesty and humility. Truly blessed to have you in my life.

“ What great memories we have of Uncle Jack. Visits to California and playing outside, camping trips, family reunions, Thanksgiving dinners, and teasing all the kids, from young to old. I remember he told me once that you can never have enough family to love you. And Alex says he will miss you, Uncle Jack!

“ So many memories and so many good times. I enjoyed talking sports with Jack, and I appreciated how he loved all the kids. He was very gentle with them. We will all miss him.

“ Jack was a true Southern Gentleman. We appreciated how he always thought about the comfort of others and was extremely generous. My husband Bo especially liked talking and listening to Jack. He was quite a story teller. We miss you Jack.

“ Yes, I will miss my Uncle Jack... but I have so many wonderful memories to share with my family. I think Uncle Jack always knew I thought he was pretty cool. Please take care Aunt Jan, Toni, and Family and know that you are in our prayers.

“ We all will really miss that guy. Even though he was really a Dodgers fan he was an Angels fan too. We will miss sharing those scores against the Mariners, all those Thanksgiving dinners, the Muckleshoots, and 50 plus years of knowing that good old Southern boy. Love from your favorite sister-in-law and favorite brother-in-law.
