Jim, the oldest son of Dagmar & Swede Larson, was born in Forest Hills, Long Island. He was a big brother to Edith Marie (Missy). Having the opportunity to move around, due to his Fathers service as a Navy Captain, Jim saw much of the country. As a young man His family headed back to California and settled on Coronado Island, CA.

He graduated High School from Bethesda Chevy Chase in June of 1960 continuing on to Northwestern University. From there he went on to serve his country in the US Army. Upon his return he graduated from San Diego State. Jim worked for many years at Hunt Wesson. He also spent time working at Arco and ConAgra, also part of Hunts. His Families last move took them to Yorba Linda, CA. Jim maintained the family's home after his parents passing along with other properties.

Just like I remember him. A good man who I enjoyed knowing and speaking with. I can still remember his calm voice
