

Jesus Mendoza Jr.

December 28, 1938 - May 25, 2026

Jesus Jr. Mendoza was born December 28, 1938 in El Paso, Texas. He grew up in El Paso, and eventually joined the navy. After his time in the navy, he became a superintendent landscaper, and he held that role for 50 years. His hobbies included golfing and spending time with his family. While visiting Singapore, he met his current wife, Lynette Mendoza. Jesus passed away May 25, 2026 in Fullerton, California. He is survived by Lynette, and his five children Freddie, Sylvia, Shirley, Michael, and Rey, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, 1 great-great-grandchild, brothers and sisters, nieces and nephews.

"His legacy isn't measured by what he left behind, but by the indelible mark he left on our hearts. He taught us the value of [hard work / kindness / family], and I will carry his wisdom with me for the rest of my life."
