Obituary for June Adell Petitt

Having reached her 88th birthday, June Adell Petitt, with family by her side, passed away quietly on October 10, 2020, due to complications from cancer. June was born October 10, 1932 in Los Angeles, California, to Lawrence J. Cooper and Lula May (Bliven) Cooper.

As a child, June loved her small menagerie of animals and pets, playing with her siblings and riding alongside her beloved stepfather Raymond Bond, as they delivered shavings to the stables of such clients as Shirley Temple.

June graduated from John C. Fremont High School in Los Angeles, California, and married her high school sweetheart, Masil Brenston Petitt, October 21, 1950. They had four sons, and in 1965 she and her beloved Mace, moved their family to Brea, California.

June was a very loving, giving, caring and joyful person with a beautiful smile. She was a wonderful nurturing caregiver, mother, friend and mentor. She especially was filled with joy when she was in the presence of babies, even babies she didn't know!

June loved watching her husband play baseball, and in later years watching her grandchildren play ball as well as rooting for the Dodgers. She cherished outings with her family, going to the beach and local mountains or just going to a drive-in movie. She also enjoyed fishing and loved playing cards or games with her family and friends. One of her favorite past times was relaxing by the poolside and swimming, especially in Palm Springs.

Since her husband's passing, June lived at the "The Fountains" in Fullerton, California until her death. There she made lasting friendships with many tenants that lived there, and was known to be the "glue" that kept them all together. Card games and dominoes were enjoyed almost nightly by all.

June is survived by her son Larry Petitt and his wife VJ of Park City, Utah, son Gary Petitt and his wife Barbara of Laughlin, Nevada, son Randy Petitt and his wife Joyce of San Bernardino, California, and son Jeff Petitt and his wife Cindy of Fullerton, California, along with her sister-in-law Annie Petitt, and a multitude of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

June was preceded in death by her husband Masil B. Petitt.

Services will be private at the Memory Garden Memorial Park in Brea, California, on Saturday, October 24, 2020 at 10:00 AM. Family and friends may join the services via a Zoom Memorial Service (see information regarding zoom service below.)
