In Loving Memory of Leanne Michelle Burgess

October 28, 1974 – June 14, 2025

Leanne Michelle Burgess, lovingly known as Michelle, was a shining light guided by her unwavering faith in God. Her warm heart, joyful spirit, and contagious laughter brought comfort and hope to all who knew her, even in the most difficult times. Michelle's kindness and compassion touched strangers and friends alike, as she welcomed everyone with an open heart. Strong in spirit and sacrificial by nature, she lived her life grounded in faith, always putting others before herself and trusting in God's plan.

A devoted wife, Michelle deeply loved her husband, Michael Burgess. She was also a devoted daughter, sister, aunt, friend and a devoted mother to her beloved dogs, Roxy, Molly, and Andy—her faithful companions and joy.

Though our hearts are heavy, we find peace in knowing she is now resting in the arms of the Lord, where there is no pain or sorrow. Her faith, love, and spirit will remain with us forever.

“ My sister was the pillar of love. Our love language was shopping, nails, music and laughter. When we got together nothing mattered. We escaped and just were in our own bubble. The love my sister had for me was undeniable and I wish I got to tell her “she you later” and tell her how much I adored her. I am absolutely shattered. I will never understand why but I do know God had a plan. Sissy, as we approach laying your earthly body down forever, your spirit will never leave. Until heaven.....I love you!

“ A true face of strength. She endured suffering and struggles, facing them with dignity, strength, and optimism. She didn't allow her troubles to jade or harden her heart, spirit, or soul, and continued to give to others, even in her darkest of hours. She was and will always remain a true inspiration to all. May you rest peacefully and know that you are loved and that you will live in our hearts and memory.

Absolutely...my sister was strength, joy, laughter, a singer and showed it daily in her actions. Hugs
