

Linda Nelson

March 4, 1948 - August 6, 2023

No obituary found for this tribute.

Previous Events

Funeral Service

SEP 2. 2:00 PM (PT)

Memory Garden Memorial Park & Mortuary
455 W. Central Ave.
Brea, CA 92821
(714) 529-3961
info@memorygarden.com
<https://www.memorygarden.com/>

Burial

SEP 2. 3:00 PM (PT)

Memory Garden Memorial Park
455 W. Central Avenue
Brea, CA 92821

Tribute Wall

BA

“ The past couple weeks have been a rollercoaster and a bit of a blur. On August 6th I got the news my Grandma Linda passed away. She was my last living grandma and I'm truly heartbroken with the news. It's been non stop floods of memories from kisses on the foreheads, to shopping sprees, to what alotta pizza, to Brittany-Ann's!! to hiiiiii Brittany, to I love you beyond the moon.

I was her first Grandchild and I got to have her a little longer than everyone else and let me tell you, I know I stressed her out but I know I made her so proud. I probably was the cause for some of the grey hairs probably mom more, but I gave her some for sure. She would always tell me stories about her wedding day and her mom making all her clothes. She would tell me stories about her childhood and her favorite story was getting surprised at work with her corvette □ I'll cherish all my story times with her. I got to have some lunch dates and talks about life. I'm thankful for every moment I had with her.

Strength is the word I use to describe grandma if I was to define the word strength it would be Linda Ann Nelson. She was a fighter. If there was one thing she taught me was to keep fighting. Through thick and thin, through good times and bad times, in sickness and in health she stood by grandpa as she stood by all of us. grandma taught us how to stick with it, to persevere through difficult seasons and to enjoy to the fullest the seasons that aren't.

Through hugs and kisses, support, ways of life, discipline, providing and caring, laughing and crying, living and dying grandma gave herself to all of us and in doing so taught us how to live. She always put everyone in front of herself. Wanted to make sure everyone was taken care of and happy before her. She would give all she had.

She took life as it came, accepting it as it was and enjoying what she had. She took the same approach to people, loving them as they were, walking alongside them and accepting them. Through this she taught us how to love one another, as she loved and as we've been loved.

"Reach for the stars." That was her saying No star is out of reach is what she always said. Don't just dream it be it. It really made her proud to see her children and grandchildren making dreams become reality.

You've been such an important part of my life. Always challenging me challenging us. You had very high standards for us on how to be. You wanted us to be the best versions of ourselves and keep being better.

She had a way of making you feel so special. Like the world was made for you.

I love you beyond the moon 🌙

Brittany Ann - September 02, 2023 at 04:37 PM

BA

“ The past couple weeks have been a rollercoaster and a bit of a blur. On August 6th I got the news my Grandma Linda passed away. She was my last living grandma and I'm truly heartbroken with the news. It's been non stop floods of memories from kisses on the foreheads, to shopping sprees, to what alotta pizza, to Brittany-Ann's!! to hiiiiii Brittany, to I love you beyond the moon.

I was her first Grandchild and I got to have her a little longer than everyone else and let me tell you, I know I stressed her out but I know I made her so proud. I probably was the cause for some of the grey hairs probably mom more, but I gave her some for sure. She would always tell me stories about her wedding day and her mom making all her clothes. She would tell me stories about her childhood and her favorite story was getting surprised at work with her corvette □ I'll cherish all my story times with her. I got to have some lunch dates and talks about life. I'm thankful for every moment I had with her.

Strength is the word I use to describe grandma if I was to define the word strength it would be Linda Ann Nelson. She was a fighter. If there was one thing she taught me was to keep fighting. Through thick and thin, through good times and bad times, in sickness and in health she stood by grandpa as she stood by all of us. grandma taught us how to stick with it, to persevere through difficult seasons and to enjoy to the fullest the seasons that aren't.

Through hugs and kisses, support, ways of life, discipline, providing and caring, laughing and crying, living and dying grandma gave herself to all of us and in doing so taught us how to live. She always put everyone in front of herself. Wanted to make sure everyone was taken care of and happy before her. She would give all she had.

She took life as it came, accepting it as it was and enjoying what she had. She took the same approach to people, loving them as they were, walking alongside them and accepting them. Through this she taught us how to love one another, as she loved and as

we've been loved.

"Reach for the stars." That was her saying No star is out of reach is what she always said. Don't just dream it be it. It really made her proud to see her children and grandchildren making dreams become reality.

You've been such an important part of my life. Always challenging me challenging us. You had very high standards for us on how to be. You wanted us to be the best versions of ourselves and keep being better.

She had a way of making you feel so special. Like the world was made for you.

I love you beyond the moon 🌙

Brittany Ann - September 02, 2023 at 04:35 PM

TE

“ For my sons 1st birthday in 2022 she came to celebrate with us all. She loved to talk and tell stories to my papa who she was sitting across from and watching us kids well adults haha run back and forth for the actual kids. When it came time for presents she got my son a firehouse and a buzzlightyear and to this day my son loves to play with both. Constantly hits the firehouse button over and over but at least he is having fun. I heard from Shyanne my bestie/sister that gam gam was worried about me because of things I had going on and that after all that was over, that she was proud of me. That coming from gam gam meant a lot. She was the gam gam in our group and always will be. I'm lost for words for her not being here anymore but I just hope she knows that we will always remember her and we will always be here for Shyanne. Rest in peace gam gam I love you.

Taylor E - September 02, 2023 at 03:12 PM

MH

“ Linda Nelson , you were the most caring , giving , and always spreading your love to everyone around you. I am so blessed to know such a great mother. we will greatly miss you and we love you , your love will forever be in our hearts. May you R.I.P. 🙏❤️❤️❤️🙏

michelle horn - September 01, 2023 at 05:07 PM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Linda Nelson.

September 01, 2023 at 02:14 PM

“ A Memorial Tree was planted in honor of Linda Nelson.

September 01, 2023 at 02:14 PM

“ Grandma was the most intelligent, caring person I've ever met and I'm proud she raised me into a loving man. I love you grandma!
-Mikey

Michael Troyer - August 30, 2023 at 05:57 PM

“ Benjamin S. purchased the Beautiful in Blue for the family of Linda Nelson.

Benjamin S. - August 30, 2023 at 04:56 PM