“ What seems like many years ago, I had my soda paid for at 711 by who I think is Maddi's dad. He gave me a card saying the gesture was in memory of Maddi. I've read so many great things about her on this memory book. Dad, if you are seeing this, know she got her kindness from YOU!. Her memory lives on. On MY Dad's birthday who passed in 2014, I make the same gesture to whomever is in line after me at the drive-thru or cashier. Each time I remember my dad and the gesture you made to me in Maddi's memory. Her kindness will live on so long as I am alive. -Andy Lopez, Jordan, Rancho, LHHS parent.

“ It's Nov. 2024 and I still think of the little girl Maddie from Macy Elementary.
RIP little angel girl and cover us with prayer. Again, after all this time, my condolences to all of the family whom I am certain remember this angel every day.

“ I lived next door to Maddisen in 2000. She was a beautiful baby. So sad to hear of her passing.

“ I pray that God will wrap his arms around you and hold you tightly in this unimaginable time. My daughter was a classmate of Maddisen's at Rancho Starbuck and has taken some comfort in knowing that Maddie is in a greater place watching over all of her friends and family. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
