“ Ceremony was so beautiful and so peaceful ☐ I'll always miss grandma for sticking up for me and always looking me to tell me how beautiful I was no matter what crazy circumstances was going on. She'd stay asking for an update of the long or lost grandkids of hers and I love that most because she'd always keep us in mind and her prayers. Love u Great Grandma 🕊☐

“ Memories are abundant with grandma since we were blessed with her for 90 plus years. I appreciated many qualities about her especially determination. In her 90's she decided to set a goal of becoming a U.S. Citizen and although some people didn't believe in her ability or desire to want to take on this mission, guess what... she reached out to a few people who she knew would support her effort. Grandma became American! I believe in higher education and seeking opportunities and she aligned with that. Grandma when I become skeptical about succeeding, I think about you and your success. Love you so much and you will always be remembered, always ❤️
