For the Placentia, CA, Walworth, NY, and Randolph, NY newspapers.

Mary M. Slater, 79 of Placentia, CA, previously Walworth, NY, and originally of Randolph, NY, went home to the Lord peaceful on Wednesday, February 29, 2020 at the St. Jude Medical Center in Fullerton, CA.

She was born April 6, 1940 in Gowanda, NY, the son of the late John and Mary Hilbert Slater.

Mary was a 1958 graduate of Randolph Central School. She was a bank teller, computer operator, waitress, wife, but best of all mother.

She was a member of the Placentia Senior Center, and a former member and Senior Regent of the Palmrya Loyal Order of the Moose Lodge 1420.

She is survived by her husband of 52 years, Leonhard Sperber, whom she married on September 10, 1967 at the Resurrection Lutheran Church in Rochester, NY, two daughters: DeAnn (Juan) Davila of Palm Bay, FL and Jill (Chris) Laurent of Irvine, CA, a son: John (Rose) Sperber of Placentia, CA, and 5 grandchildren (Collin, Garrett, Dustin, Logan and Cameron).

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters, Marilyn (Charles) Teachman, Retha (Leo) Smith-Saff and four brothers, Warren (Patricia), Clarence, John (Martha), and Alan (Nancy) Slater.

The family will receive family and friends at the Memory Garden and Memorial Park and Mortuary, 455 W. Central Avenue, Brea, CA. In addition, the family will also receive family and friends at a later day in late spring at the VanRensselaer & Son Funeral Home, 14 Church Street, Randolph. Inurnment will be in the Randolph Cemetery right next to her sister, Retha.

Memorials may be sent to the American Diabetes Association, American Heart Association or Randolph Free Library.
