

Michael 'Mike' David LeDuc

July 22, 1950 - August 18, 2014

Michael David LeDuc, 64, of Placentia, California, treasured husband of Linda LeDuc, passed away peacefully in his sleep on August 18, 2014 after fighting a courageous yearlong battle with cancer.

Mike is preceded in death by his beloved mother, Doris LeDuc. He is survived by his son, Brandon Hulett and wife, Jenny; daughters, Nicole Daeschner and husband Mike, and Brittany Logan; grandchildren, Kaleb and Sophia Hulett, Danielle Donahue, and Brooklyn Wiley; father, Harold LeDuc and spouse, Carol; brothers and sisters, Jim LeDuc and spouse, Maryellen; Dena Herrera and spouse, Jaime; Ron Young and spouse, Ana; Connie Winn and spouse, Dennis; Randy Young and spouse, Bonnie; James Young; Joanie Hill and spouse, Donnie; and many loving in-laws, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Mike was a lifelong resident of Orange County, who graduated from Anaheim High School in 1968, where he was an original member of the Mozart Choir. He was a fishing enthusiast who was an official member of the Brotherhood of the Trout, where he enjoyed many adventures with the boys. He had a passion for the ponies, reading, and loved cooking. He truly enjoyed teaching students in the Anaheim School District where he taught with a witty sense of humor. He was deeply loved by his students and quickly became known as Mr. Monopoly. Mike's favorite way to wind down after a long day of teaching was to come home, turn up the music and work in the yard. He loved being a father and Poppa. He was never in a hurry for anything. Mike lived every moment with passion for life and his contagious laughter will forever be etched in our hearts.
