“ For Patsy, who always treated me as one of her own. I love you so much. I always will. May the world know how important you were in my life; the fond memories of yesterday, your spiritual presence today and the prayful future that will be our new relationship as you will guide us from your new heavenly home. I belevie you live within your husband, daughters and grandchildren. As I continue to cherish those relationships you remain forever with me. I picture you at the dining room table playing Uno and hear your laughter as I write this and tears, well they just abound and allow me to release just a wee bit of my own sadness... for your beautiful family as they grieve; Glen, Pammy, Laurie, the best friend in the world Mary...Dan, Richard, Larry, Ashley, Matthew, Ryan and my precious Nicole, I pray that whatever soothes your spirit, comforts your soul and brings you peace...that is what I wish for your family at this very sad time. With all my love to a family I adore. Peace of Christ, Allison Bodenweiser xoxooxox Kyrie eleison

“ Dear Pam,I'm so deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the below poem may bring you comfort in the days ahead as you and your entire family morn the loss of your beautiful mother."The Will of God"The will of God will never take you,Where the grace of God cannot keep you,Where the arms of God cannot support you, Where the riches of God cannot supply your needs,Where the power of God cannot endow you.The will of God will never take you,Where the spirit of God cannot work through you,Where the wisdom of God cannot teach you,Where the army of God cannot protect you,Where the hands of God cannot mold you.The will of God will never take you,Where the love of God cannot enfold you,Where the mercies of God cannot sustain you,Where the peace of God cannot calm your fears,Where the authority of God cannot overrule you.The will of God will never take you,Where the comfort of God cannot dry your tears,Where the Word of God cannot feed you,Where the miracles of God cannot be done for you.Where the omnipresence of God cannot find you.(Author: Unknown)Love,Lisa and Mike

“ To my brother in-law and beautiful nieces, I know what you are going thru and I feel your pain. In time that will pass and you will have wonderful memories to keep forever. It may seem like we will never get thru this, but we do. I will miss my sister, especially after losing Mother so recently. My heart and sympathy goes out to all the family, I love you girls and Glen. I received this card when my beautiful Mel passed, it said, "We are never prepared for the loss of a loved one, but God is always prepared to help us through that loss., Love, Aunt Gloria
