“ I loved Grandma dearly! She would sit at the Seville apartments and watch me swim as often as I wanted to put on a wet swim suit. She made me a memorable Raggedy Ann Birthday cake. She put it in the trunk. By the time she has delivered it, Raggedy had fallen over face first in the trunk. We laughed for years. Grandma encouraged me to try new foods like their freshly caught salmon. Grandma took me to Hawaii after I graduated from high school. She had us on so many tours that I did not even come home with a tan. The last couple of years we had fun texting and even FaceTime. Grandma taught me to laugh a lot and appreciate the world. Most of all she and Grandpa Tom taught me to love the Lord!! She escorted me through the temple when i was married, in 1990. I love you forever Grandma. Tell Grandpa Hi!! Love always
