“ Rene, our childhood friend, we had so many fond memories growing up. You were so kind to everyone. You made me and my brothers laugh and it was always a great time when you were around the family. You will be missed and our memories will live on.

Rey was such a wonderful person. I used to work with him at AAA and when I moved back to New Mexico I found out recently that he had passed. My heart goes out to his family which he always talked about and I can tell he loved them with all of his heart. He always has something funny to say to bring a dark day bright. Until we meet again, sir. 🌻
