“ Dearest Dad, Thank you for the few years you graced my life. It was a peaceful place for me to be in your presence. Your gentleness and quiet smile lifted my spirits when needed. Many times I would watch you sitting in your chair during the family gatherings. You were quiet but I also saw that you truly relished these times of having your lovely family bustling around you. Those memories I remember and they bring acceptance, happiness, peace, and warmth, as it should be on this earth. I will so miss you Dad!! I rejoice in the fact of having been a member of your extended family member and you will always be in my heart. Dad, rest now and sleep...Love you so much, Moon

“ I love you Dad Marasco. You were a second father figure to me for 45 years. Gosh, sometimes I'd even call you if I was in a bind, instead of calling my own Dad. And off to my rescue you came. And I'd get the same parental lecture from you and Mom Marasco, cuz I was just an added kid to the family. Thank you thank you for loving me as your own and for being an incredible, moral, kind, funny, intelligent, generous, and gracious Dad. You lead an incredible family-then-and to the present. See you in eternity with Jesus Dad. I wonder if there are '68 red mustangs up there that you can graciously (while cringing I'm sure), watch me and Laura 'peel out' in front of the house cuz we were stupid teenagers. Then we came in and ate your incredible spaghetti. I'm sure there is the finest wine for you to enjoy. I Love and miss you Dad. I'm thankful you're in your perfect heavenly body now and have all knowledge of Heaven and our precious God. Say hi to Larry too. Love you, Cindy
