

Robert Lewis Lively

July 18, 1972 - October 23, 2023

Robert Lewis Lively was born on July 18th, 1972, and became part of our family when he was three days old. Our local doctor brought him to our home, handed him to his Mom and drove away. His brother, David, was six years old when Robert arrived. When David went to school the following day, he told his classmates that he knew where babies came from - doctors in Cadillacs brought them.

Life was never dull when Robert was around. At an early age he let us know his name was not Bob or any other nickname - his name was Robert or Rob, and our journey through life began. He had a creative sense of humor, an open smile and made friends easily.

Robert grew into a kind, generous man who loved to sing. He had a good voice and often sang karaoke with his friends. Our special song was "I Can't Smile Without You" by Barry Manilow, and when it was played on the radio, we sang and laughed together. Robert wrote his own music and lyrics, played piano and learned to play guitar. We went to church together and Rob enjoyed the singing and the friendships he made. He was baptized on a warm Sunday afternoon and we were so proud of his commitment.

His last few years were troubled and a slow decline began. He was filled with anxiety and longing for a happier life. I chose to think that when he asked God for help, God answered his prayer and took him home. We will forever love and miss our wonderful son so this is not an end but the beginning of a new life for Robert.

Robert is survived by his Father Victor Lively, (Wife Claudia), Mother Kathy Parsons, (Husband Dean Parsons), Brother David Lively (Wife Beverly), Kendra Lively (Niece), cousins Tammy Sullivan (Husband Jimmy) and Jennifer Reeves (Husband Larry).
