“It's taken me a long time to be able to write something here. My heart is broken that I can't speak directly to my friend anymore. I'm hoping we can all encourage one another. Robin made everyone feel like they were her closest friend, I believe. She had a different relationship with each of us and yet each was a close one. I could call her anytime. She knew me, she knew the 'backstory' on whatever I was going through with life, family, work, etc... I didn't need to explain. We could talk excitedly, cry, yell, giggle, whatever we needed to do! I can't even say how tremendously I will miss her and what she meant to me. She always showed concern, friendship, LOVE, prayers, laughter...She was always available. Robin struggled so much and I tried to encourage her by pointing out all the growth I had seen in her and the good that I had learned from her. She was just so uncomfortable on this earth! She LOVED while she was here and I do believe I will be learning from her for a long time to come as I think about the sweet friend she was to me. She was a REAL person, she is still so beautiful to me. Something that amazes me also is that in her spirit of friendship she has not left us alone. She talked about her dear Lord Jesus often-He is still her Lord and friend and available to each one of us! And, because of her LOVE for us, somehow, she is still bringing people together. People who love her dearly and need to talk about her and grieve together. People who prayed for each other through Robin sharing, but had never actually met. I knew Robin since the 6th grade. I would love to communicate with anyone who would like to contact me. I may need to speak to you as much as you'd like to speak to someone. I had just moved out of state to care for my parents and could not come when this tragedy struck. I was thankful for arrangements made that I got to talk to her on the phone. Her LOVE will last forever because she LOVED us with the LOVE she received from Jesus...

“ My dear friend Robin, you are missed so much even though we saw each other only one week a year when I would visit. I miss your smile, your giggle, and most of all your testimony of your love for Jesus. It is hard to believe we were friends for 50 years! My that is a long time!! I am so thankful for the few hours we had together the day before you passed into Jesus' loving arms, looking at old pictures, just holding your hand. You have a new home now, one we can only imagine what is like. Joe and Nancy were so good to you; taking care of you, and I can imagine they must feel the grief even deeper.

“ Robin was the sweetest, kindest, loving person I knew. She was a friend for 35 years. Robin would come over 4-5 nights a week to watch the Angel Games with me. We were both fans of the Angels. Robin, my life has been enriched by your friendship, and I will miss you terribly. You are in Gods arms now and happy. I miss you terribly, but you will be in my heart forever.

“ Maria, Luis, Maritza, Angel and Mikey have told me numerous times how good Robin has been to them while they were growing up in her neighborhood. She sent them a birthday card every year and when I saw her she was attending their kids events and always involved, and cheering. She is a very special and beautiful person and we miss her.

“ Hello, To everyone signing Robin's guest book. I would first like to thank you for all of your heartfelt empathy at this time of our loss. We will be instructing ALL to give a donation to a charity organization, instead of flowers. This is what Robin would have wanted and so I will ask you to do this. We will give more specific information about the charity (Orange County Rescue Mission). THANK YOU, Joe
