

Stella Odom

February 7, 1940 - September 4, 2012

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

AN

“ Stella Odom

Angemienido - December 15, 2012 at 12:00 AM

GU

“ Aloha! vrx

Gundosruk - November 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JS

“ My Dearest Mother today is particularly difficult as I think that I will not see you again. We will make contact with you. You are a very active soul. You used to love the many tarot readings I used to give you. We had so many good years

James Prichard Son - September 16, 2012 at 12:00 AM

LK

“ My heart goes out to everyone Stella touched.

I am so happy to been able to spend time with her and chat through emails.

I do have fond memories when I was a very young girl.

Thank goodness for good memories.

Linda Bates Koss - September 12, 2012 at 12:00 AM

TB

“ Although I did not know your mother well, she was always cheerful presense. My prayers go out to you and I hope you feel the Lords peace in your time of sorrow.

Traci Bardaro - September 11, 2012 at 12:00 AM

LS

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Stella was a good friend, she will be missed.

Linda Scott - September 11, 2012 at 12:00 AM

MM

“ Good bye Stella, You were a good cube mate and friend. You set a strong example of persistence when you obtained your PhD, Ed. while working full time. Always cheerful, you will be missed.

Mike Mull - September 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM

SL

“ You have been a dear and trusted friend. May your life in heaven be as celebrated as it was in life!

Sandra L. Light - September 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM

KS

“ My thoughts are with you at this time of need. Stella was a wonderful lady. She will be missed by all of ther coworkers here at Boeing.

Karyn Settles - September 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM

CA

“ Always positive with a smile to share. Sella, you will be missed!

Christopher Allaire - September 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM

KO

“ After just a few short years working with Stella, she made a such an inspirational impression on me. She is such a vibrant soul who lives life to the fullest and encouraged me to take advantage of every hour. I will miss her smiling enthusiasm and warmth.

Kristina O'Connor - September 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM

AC

“Unable are the loved to die. For love is immortality.” Emily Dickinson

Dearest Stella,

My heart is broken as I am attempting to write this farewell note from the Pacific Northwest. At the same time, I take comfort in knowing you were loved by such an array of inspiring and wonderful people. Undoubtedly, you reciprocated this eternal ray of love with your family, your friends, your co-workers and even strangers. Do you remember my first visit to your home in Brea in May of 2006? James, or Marty as you used to say, couldn't find me at LAX because my original flight had been canceled, so I accidentally took a "limousine" to Brea. After a tiring drive to your house, I finally met you! An inexplicable luminosity and vibrancy emanated from your person. We chatted about movies, Marty, and the world until James himself appeared at the door. The memories of that memorable stay will forever remain ingrained in my mind. On that night, you made me feel as if I were part of your family. You were so proud of all of your children and grandchildren. The last time I saw you on Skype was last June, and I will always regret not to have taken the time to call you more often although I would often ask James about you. Even if I am unable to attend your funeral service this Tuesday, I will teach my class on Tuesday morning in your honor, and I will be present in spirit. I love you Stella. Ce n'est qu'un au revoir, or it is only goodbye as we say in France. As your beautiful name indicates, Stella means "star" in Latin. You are now a Star amongst the stars. Shalom my dear friend. My heartfelt condolences to James, to his sister Julie, to his brothers Jon-Erik and Jimmy as well as to Stella's entire family.

Anne Cariou - September 09, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JB

“ I worked with Stella for many years. She always had unstoppable energy. She was always the life of the party and not afraid to share stories from her past. She will be missed.

Jay Baldauf - September 09, 2012 at 12:00 AM