

SUSAN BETH BROWN

March 2, 1953 - January 1, 2026

Susan Beth Brown was born March 2, 1953, to Ralph and Pauline Brown in Montebello, California. Sue passed away peacefully on Jan 1, 2026, with her best friend Janis Stichal by her side. Sue spent her childhood in Anaheim where she graduated from Anaheim High School. She spent a happy childhood with family and good friends, some of whom became lifelong friends. After a short attempt at college, Sue chose to go into the workforce focusing on customer service, working at various places and businesses throughout her life. Being a child at heart, Sue spent many hours watching and enjoying her friend's children. This brought her great joy.

Sue was very sporty and loved basketball! She was a huge Laker's fan and especially a fan of Jerry West. She and her Dad loved to watch basketball together.

Sue was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She held many callings within the church over the years. A couple of her favorites were teaching in the Relief Society and working with the Young Women. Sue served a full-time mission for the church in 2018 as a senior missionary in the Salt Lake City Headquarters Mission. While serving she worked in Family History and in the Discovery Zone which was her favorite. Sue was an amazing friend. She had many friends from work, church and social circles. She loved everyone and everyone loved her!

Sue was preceded in death by her mother, Laura Pauline Brown and her father, Ralph D. Brown as well as a sister, Leslie Brown and a brother, Michael Brown. Surviving her is her sister Robyn Smith, and nieces and nephews: Wendy Flynn, David Brown, Jonathan Brown, Matthew Brown, Andrea Murphy, Jessa Sandlin, Tim Potter, and Rachel Pasillas.

The service at 11:30 am (PST) will be streamed at this link:
