

Terry Alan Young

December 21, 1949 - October 11, 2024

Terry Alan Young passed away on October 11, 2024, at the age of 74, in Orange, California. Born on December 21, 1949, Terry was a respected figure in his industry and by the multitude of friends that he has cultivated over his life.

He pursued higher education at Western Kentucky University, where he was a proud member of Delta Sigma Pi, fostering lifelong friendships and professional networks that he cherished throughout his life. Terry continued his association with Delta Sigma Pi during post graduate studies at Cal Poly Pomona.

Terry honorably served in the US Air Force from 1971 to 1973, dedicating his skills during a pivotal time in our nation's history. After his military service, he channeled his discipline and leadership in various management positions before he founded Database Works, Inc., a company that became a cornerstone in the entertainment industry for over three decades.

Terry is remembered for his generous spirit and loyalty to his many friends. He enjoyed supporting the Angels of Anaheim, gourmet cooking, BBQing and a passion for fine wines. Terry was an early adopter of all new technology, but we won't mention Betamax, quad stereos, laser disc, etc., his home theatre was a show piece that damaged many eardrums over the years. Terry was a world traveler with many trips to exotic locations including a climb to the peak of Kilimanjaro.

Terry was preceded in death by his parents, Herbert Henry and Lorene Young, and his brothers, Billy, Joe, and Bobby. He is survived by his sister-in-law, Barbara Young, who remembers him as a loyal family member that faithfully returned home to Kentucky for the holidays and enjoyed her cooking.

Terry's life was marked by his entrepreneurial spirit, commitment to his country, and the lasting impact he made on those around him. His legacy will continue to inspire and influence many.
